| Feature-length | Free | 30 USD | 150 USD |
| Short | Free | | |

Please take the delivery time into consideration, the submission time is determined by the time when all submission materials (including online submission and delivery materials) arrives at the festival office. If the film fails to complete submission or is withdrew from the competition, no submission fee will be refunded. If the delivery materials arrive later than expected, you may be required to pay for the extra fee. When the extra payment is made, your film will officially enter the jury review process.

After the submission is closed (April 20, 24:00, UTC+8), submitted films are not allowed to be withdrew or quit the competition.

B. Competition Sections and Films

FIRST International Film Festival has 3 competition sections: Narrative Feature Competition, Documentary Competition and Short Film Competition, and no premiere status is required. Each film could only be submitted to one competition. If the festival committee finds that the film does not fit in the competition it is submitted to, the festival committee is entitled to change the competition section with the filmmaker's consent.

1. Narrative Feature Competition

Fictional films with the duration of 60min and above, and also meet all requirements listed in 'A.General' -'3. Eligibility' can compete in this competition.

If the film is co-directed, it should be among the first three directorial narrative features of each director.

2. Documentary Competition

Non-fictional films with the duration of 60min and above, and also meet all requirements listed in 'A.General' -'3. Eligibility' can compete in this competition.

3. Short Film Competition

Films with the duration of less than 60min, and also meet all requirements listed in 'A.General' -'3. Eligibility' can compete in this competition.

4. Debut Spotlight

Debut Spotlight is a section with no awards. The festival committee will select 3-5 films among the Narrative Feature Section and Documentary Section as festival's highlight. The filmmaker does not need to submit to this section. Films that will be at least Chinese-premiered at FIRST and belongs to the first narrative feature of the director will be considered for Debut Spotlight consideration. This section does not conclude any award given by the jury committee and selected films will still compete in its original competition section. Whether a film is selected in Debut Spotlight will not affect its award-judging process in its original competition section.
